

STAKEHOLDERS BULLETIN

Dear Stakeholders

We do hope you are all keeping well and safe.

We have some important information to update you on.

WORLD MENTAL HEALTH DAY

World Mental Health Day is scheduled for Monday 10th October 2022. Mental well-being has become a global priority by the World Health Organisation. We all have our part to play in promoting this and finding time to talk to each other, even if we can't meet, we can use the telephone or other technology such as Zoom.

PRESS RELEASE

DOWN'S SYNDROME ACT

This new act to ensure the care and support you receive is recognised and provided.

Down Syndrome Act 2022 guidance: call for evidence

The Department of Health and Social Care (DHSC) are calling for evidence which will inform the development of the Down Syndrome Act statutory guidance.

This call for evidence will run for a period of 16 weeks and is open to everyone. People under the age of 13 will need consent from a parent or guardian to submit their response. DHSC are seeking your views on what should be included within the guidance. They will consider those views when producing draft guidance which we intend to publish for full public consultation.

You can respond:

- as an individual
- on behalf of someone else
- on behalf of an organisation

The call for evidence closes at 11.45pm on 8 November 2022
